“not my will, but yours be done.” Luke 22:42 (ESV)

October Days is a time when we at Parklawn (PAOG) look to the future. We anticipate God’s prophetic promises. In doing so, we look to God in prayer.

Prayer is not optional for kingdom-believers. It is a mandate from the Lord (Luke 18:1; Col. 4:2; 1 Thess.5:17). Through prayer we give God permission to intervene in the affairs of earth. Through prayer we welcome heaven’s help in our lives. We yield and demonstrate agreement with the will of God. Through prayer we pull into the earth realm things that belong to us that are waiting in heaven. It is with this disposition that I invite you to join me in consecration. Let’s agree with God concerning His design and desire for PAOG. Let’s declare that His will be done in PAOG!

To strengthen our prayer focus, I’ve provided the Power 10 Prayers. These prayers are crucial to the fulfillment of God’s dream for PAOG. Dedicate specific time each day during the period of consecration to meditate on the scriptures and pray these prayers. Your obedience in this regard is key as we endeavor to do all the Lord requires us to do.

In addition to prayer, I ask that you commit to some method of fasting (i.e., abstain from food, beverages, and other pleasurable goods or activities). Examples include:

- Skip a meal
- One meal a day
- Only veggies and fruits
- No meal until evening (e.g., 6pm)
- Liquids only (e.g., water, tea)
- Absolute—no food or water

When you give up something you cherish in order to pray, read and mediate the Word of God, you’re demonstrate that God is more important. He’s priority. You’re hungry for more of Him in your life... desperate for breakthrough. Those with specific health concerns should consult their physician before participating for appropriate advisement.

PAOG, we are a people with vision and we’re on a mission. Let’s band together, seek God, and praise Him in advance of the manifestation because it’s already done!
